

Seminar on Post-colonial Trends in Literature

The Seminar on Post-colonial Trends in Literature took place on 18-03-2022, Organized by Department of English. The seminar aimed to delve into the complexities of post-colonial literature and the ways in which writers from formerly colonized regions respond to and reflect upon the legacies of colonialism.

Inaugural Address: The seminar commenced with an inaugural address by Dr. Muhammad Fareed, Principal, WMO College who underscored the importance of post-colonial literature in understanding the complex and diverse experiences of individuals and societies impacted by colonial histories.

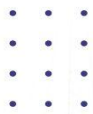

Keynote Addresses: Distinguished scholars in post-colonial literature delivered keynote addresses, offering insights into the evolution of post-colonial narratives, their cultural significance, and their contribution to reshaping literary canons. Total 60 students were participated in the seminar.

Principal
W.M.O. Arts & Science College
Muttill P.O., Wayanad

SEMINAR

Post-colonial Trends in Literature

DATE
18-03-2022

TIME
10.30 AM

VENUE

Dialogue hall

Organized by

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

WMO Arts and Science College

Principal
W.M.O. Arts & Science College
Muttill P.O., Wayanad