

National Seminar on Depiction of India in Contemporary Arab Works

The National Seminar on "Depiction of India in Contemporary Arab Works" was held on 02-08-2021 to 05-08-2021, Organized by Department of Arabic through Google Meet. The seminar aimed to delve into the portrayal of India in contemporary Arab literature, art, media, and cultural discourse. The event provided a platform to analyze and interpret the perceptions, representations, and interactions between India and Arab countries.

Inaugural Address: The seminar commenced with an inaugural address by Dr. Ahamed aki ibraheem Al falahi (University of Fallujah, Iraq), who highlighted the importance of understanding cross-cultural perspectives and the role of literature and art in shaping perceptions.

Keynote Addresses: Distinguished scholars and experts delivered keynote addresses, Dr. Musafar Ahamad (IFLU Hyderabad), Dr. Muhammed Surahi (Director of Majlisudewani, Jidda) providing insights into the historical and contemporary dimensions of India's depiction in Arab works.
