

Webinar Series titled 'Let's Open up'

The "Let's Open Up" webinar series conducted by Department of mass communication on 26 July, 4 August, 13 August, 20 September, 01 October, and 01 November (Conducted as series on different Dates). It was a comprehensive and insightful collection of virtual events aimed at exploring various dimensions of openness in today's world. The series featured expert speakers from diverse fields who shared their perspectives on openness in areas such as technology, society, communication, and more. Total 50 students participated in four sessions.

Key Topics:

1. Journey of a Reporter: A humble initiative by Mass Communication to encourage and inspire students. The session handled by Mr.Thasleem Punnakkadan, Department of Mss Communication.
2. Introduction to a Vlog: Dynamic and informative session that aimed to provide participants with a comprehensive understanding of the key elements and techniques involved in creating an engaging and effective vlog (video blog). Hosted by an experienced content creator, the session delved into the fundamentals of vlogging, from conceptualization to production, and offered valuable insights to individuals interested in venturing into the world of vlogging. The Session handled by Mr. Ameen Koya, Department of Mss Communication
3. "Rhythm of Life with Dance": Session was an inspiring and dynamic event that explored the profound connection between dance and the various rhythms that permeate our lives. Hosted by a seasoned dancer and choreographer, the session aimed to celebrate the universal language of dance and how it mirrors the rhythms of nature, emotions, and human experiences.
4. Alumni Talk: The session was a dynamic and engaging session that brought together former students, or alumni, of the institution to share their experiences, insights, and career journeys with current students. Mrs. Faseela T handled t session.
