

International webinar on English and Communication

The International Webinar on English and Communication was a comprehensive virtual event conducted by Department of English on 20-07-2021. It aimed at exploring and enhancing the role of English language and effective communication in a global context. The webinar brought together renowned experts, scholars, educators, and language enthusiasts from around the world to discuss various aspects of English language proficiency and communication skills. Ms. Ayisha Parvin, Birmingham academy of language, Singapore was Chief Guest of the seminar. 46 students participated

Principal
W.M.O. Arts & Science College
Muttill P.O., Wayanad