Programme and course outcomes for all programmes offered by the Institution are stated and displayed on Website and communicated to teachers and students

The programme outcomes (PO) and course outcomes (CO) are framed and stated clearly in the syllabus of all programmes by the respective board of studies and are made available on the University Website. The college has a well-defined mechanism to communicate it with teachers and students.

- A teacher nominated by the college council co-ordinates the effective running of the process.
- The importance of learning outcomes is discussed in various committees including IQAC, college council and department meetings.
- Syllabi of various programmes are displayed on the college website along with the programme and course outcomes.
- A printed copy of syllabus of the programmes offered by the departments are made available in the respective departments for the reference of teachers and students.
- Students are made aware of the programme outcomes through orientation programme conducted at the beginning of academic programmes
- At the beginning of each course teachers effectively communicate the outcome of the course taught.
- The staff and students are provided with a college handbook which also provides the relevant details about the programmes offered.
