

NELLIKKA

The Department of Social work, WMO Arts and Science College, Muttill organized NELLIKKA, a community sensitizing rural camp at Nellarachal, Wayanad during September 15 to 22. The students actively engaged in parapet making for a public well of Njamalamkunnu residents. The rural camp was remarkable for its renderings in community living at the locality and the people. The students' stringent efforts in making the parapet for the public well remark the warm association between the educational institution and the community. 15 students of the department participated in the venture.
