

WMO ARTS AND SCIENCE COLLEGE, MUTTIL

CRITERIA-VI:6.1.2- Institutional practices such as decentralization and participative management.

The college perfectly follows decentralization and participative management. The college has various committees to organize all the activities on campus. The management committee, Principal and the college council ensure decentralized decision-making at departmental, student, and administrative levels. The various committees, cells and other bodies are the discipline and anti-ragging committee, student grievances cell, admission committee, Library advisory committee, Planning board, Basic amenities committee, Women cell and the research promotion committee. The student's union plans and coordinates sports and cultural activities in discussion with the staff advisor. The ideas and suggestions from the student union and student monitors are discussed in appropriate committees, and decisions are taken accordingly. The Parent-teacher association also contribute to the infrastructural development and extra-curricular activities of the college. IQAC implements various quality initiatives by collecting feedback and suggestions from students, faculty members and parents. The shortages and grievances, if any, reported through feedback or other modes will be discussed in appropriate committees, and remedial measures will be taken.

Committees.
