Workshop on Mobile Application Development

The department Computer Science workshop on Mobile Application Development and Network Systems. This workshop aims to equip participants with practical skills and knowledge in these rapidly evolving fields. The event conducted in Trivandrum. 60 students participated.