Introduction

During the academic year 2019-2020, WMO Arts and Science College took proactive measures by initiating capacity building and skill enhancement programs for its students. These programs were carefully designed to cultivate and develop a wide range of valuable skills among the students, empowering them to excel in their academic pursuits and future careers. By focusing on holistic education and practical skill development, the college demonstrated its dedication to ensuring the all-around growth and success of its students. Through these initiatives, WMO Arts and Science College continued to pave the way for creating well-prepared and capable individuals ready to face the challenges of the modern world.

Media Workshop

On June 29, 2019, the Women Cell of WMO College orchestrated an empowering media workshop exclusively for female students, titled "PENNORUKKAM," under the auspices of Calicut University. The workshop was skillfully led by esteemed media professionals, including Josy Joseph, former National Security Editor of THE HINDU, P T Nazer, Coordinating Editor of Media One, and Reji R Nair, a sub-editor at Mathrubhumi. The event aimed to motivate and encourage female students to explore their passion for journalism and media-related fields.

Pre Conference Learning Convention

The Department of Social work organized a pre-conference learning convention (theme centred interaction) in collaboration with TCI, on January 10, 11 and 12, 2020. It was a nice experience for the students to inculcate their knowledge through the discussion organized with some prominent resource personalities.

Workshop on Pre-Conference Learning Convention, And a Theme Centred Interaction

The Department of Social Work organized a workshop in collaboration with RUTH COHN INSTITUTE FOR TCI, INDIA named pre conference learning convention, and a theme centred interaction on November 2019. The students enriched their learning experiences through some interaction.

Orientation program on Research Methodology

The Department of Arabic took the initiative to organize an insightful orientation program on Research Methodology. The session was expertly conducted by Dr. Jamaludheen Farooqui, the esteemed Former Principal of WMO College. Through this program, students had the opportunity to gain a comprehensive understanding of research methods and techniques. Dr. Jamaludheen Farooqui's expertise and guidance were instrumental in addressing all the doubts and queries that the students had regarding research.

“Nellikka” - Rural Camp

The PG Department of Social Work meticulously organized a transformative rural camp named "NELLIKKA" from September 15th to 22nd, 2019, at Nellarchaal, 16th ward, Wayanad. During this camp, the students embarked on a meaningful mission to enhance the safety and well-being of the village community. The students collected various reusable materials from different areas of Nellarchaal and utilized them to construct a protective fence around a local well. This thoughtful initiative aimed to create a safer environment for the villagers, allowing them to walk fearlessly even during the night. The project not only addressed a practical need within the community but also fostered a sense of unity and camaraderie among the students and villagers.

Service Activities

International Anti-Drug Day

On June 26, 2019, the Anti-drug cell of WMO College and the Department of Mass Communication collaborated to host a compelling program centered around the anti-drug campaign. The event took place at the Seminar Hall and was graced by the presence of Reji Kumar, DYSP Narcotics Cell Wayanad, who inaugurated the program. The program featured a diverse array of activities aimed at raising awareness about the perils of drug abuse. A thought-provoking poster exhibition showcased powerful visuals and messages, while impactful short films related to the topic were screened to educate and engage the audience. Additionally, radio programs further reinforced the campaign's message, effectively utilizing the medium to reach a broader audience.

Bridge Course

All departments in WMO Arts and Science College offered bridge courses specifically tailored for first-year students. The following are the details from some of the departments:

B.COM C A

The department has been conducting the bridge course for first-year undergraduate students for the last 6 years. This course is arranged to bridge the knowledge gap of students. It is designed to link higher secondary syllabi to the syllabi of undergraduate courses at the entry-level. It also aims to impart basic courses in accounting which forms a part of the early program. The course is designed with a structured syllabus and coordinated by department coordinators. The head of the department monitors the overall conduct of the course. The students coming from different academic backgrounds are getting the benefit of this course.

MATHEMATICS.

The department regularly organizes and conducts bridge courses for the newly admitted UG & PG students before the commencement of their first semester classes. The main objective of the course is to bridge the gap between subjects that they are studying at plus two or Graduate level and subjects. They would be studying in their new UG or PG Programme. Entry level tests are conducted for newly admitted students based on the curriculum of their qualifying courses. Slow learners are identified first through the marks obtained in the entry level tests and by taking feedback from the students. The tutor conducts discussions with their wards to identify students who have learning disabilities and those who are slow learners. Such students are given bridge courses and remedial coaching by the concerned teachers. Tutors give individual attention to slow learners and their progress is monitored and recorded. Peer learning is also encouraged to support slow learners. Teachers provide lecture notes and other learning supplements for students to comprehend the topic taught. The specific objectives of the Bridge Course are: i. to provide an adequate foundation for the students to demystify various new topics in each of the courses. ii. To identify the strengths, weaknesses, learning levels, and areas of interest of students. iii. To revise the fundamental concepts of all key subjects studied previously.

I Talk
