Two publications of ISBN will be released in the next academic year. The publication may include papers and articles from other disciplines too.

4. Orientation to Central Universities

To make the students of final year UG aware of entrance tests and admission to join in central universities, an orientation program will be conducted in the fifth semester.

5. Department Tour

A whole department tour is planned to be organized in the next academic year. This will integrate the students of both PG and UG and enable them for a creative coexistence.

6. Rejuvenation of Department Alumni

The already formed department alumni Organization is inactive since its creation. The coming academic year will do meaningful rejuvenation of the alumni so as to give them significant opportunity to empower and inspire the students of this department. Duty of creating a database for the same will be assigned to alumni-teachers of the department.

7. Friday Talk

A Friday talk on the model of TED TALK will be organized from the second week of next academic year. The program will be of highest benefit for students to improve their language, idea and perception. Students from different departments would be selected as talkers. The medium of talk will be completely in English.

8. Spoken English - Add on course

In order to strengthen students' abilities in English language Skills an Add on English course is designed to be conducted in the department. The course modules will follow the methods of ASAP in constructive and creative way of communication.

9. University visit

The department decided to organize, as had done earlier, university visit for final UG and final PG students. Reputed Universities in India like JNU, HCU, Jamia Milliyya Islamiyya, Delhi University and EFLU are thought to be visited.

10. 'Learn English' - Extension program

This program is solely designed to give the students of this department teaching experience outside their campus. Students of Upper primary and high school from the nearest educational institutions are the target group.

11. Invited Talks

Two invited talks on new trends and developments in the contemporary literary practice will be introduced in the coming academic year. Eminent scholars from various universities and colleges would be invited as resource persons.

12. English club and literary forum

As a new venture the department will introduce an English club and a literary forum. This program would help the members of faculty identify and recognize myriad skills and abilities in students.

13. Department library and Reading room

The department is thinking of setting up an exclusive library along with a reading room as a space for students to improve their reading habit. This would help students make use of their free hours.

14. Inter-Collegiate Literary Quiz

To develop students' literary sense, a literary quiz will be conducted. Students of various colleges from Wayanad are the target group for the same.

15. Soft life skill training

The department is also thinking of organizing essential life skill training program for the first year UG students once in a week. Faculty members of the department would handle sessions.

16. Interdepartmental PPT Presentation competition

A time bounded PPT presentation competition based on general subjects or current issues. Students from various departments can participate in this event. At maximal two teams from a department is ideal. The program is thought to be conducted in august 2019.
