

Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) Between

Department of Arabic W.M.O Arts & Science College, Muttill, Wayanad & RouzathulUloom Arabic College, Farook College PO

This Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) is established on 1st June 2020, to promote academic collaboration and research cooperation between RUA College, Farook and WMO College, Muttill. Both institutions aim to bring up mutual understanding, knowledge exchange, and joint initiatives for the benefit of their students, faculty, and the academic community.

The general objective of a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) is to establish a framework for collaboration and cooperation between two institutions. The MoU outlines the common goals and areas of interest in which the parties agree to work together. The specific objectives can vary depending on the nature of the collaboration, but some common objectives include:

Thus, the Department of Arabic, W.M.O. Arts & Science College, Muttill, Wayanad, and the RouzathulUloom Arabic College, Farook, have agreed to support their mutual interests in the field of Research Collaboration, International conferences, workshops, FDP, and other academic exchange programmes.

The two parties HEREBY agree to establish collaboration according to the terms and conditions set out in the article following hereunder.

Field of Cooperation

Teacher Training and Professional Development: The departments can organise joint workshops, seminars, and training sessions for Arabic language instructors.

Promoting Cooperation: The MoU aims to foster cooperation and collaboration between the parties involved, whether they are academic institutions, research organizations, businesses, or government entities. It seeks to create a platform for joint initiatives and mutual support.

Research Collaboration: If research is a key component of the collaboration, the MoU may aim to promote joint research projects, collaborative studies, and the sharing of research facilities and resources. It seeks to encourage the development of new knowledge and solutions through research cooperation

- i. Supervision of research scholars at the centre
- ii. Sharing of research facilities, resources, and equipment.
- iii. Collaborative research publications and presentations.

b. Academic Exchange:

- i. Exchange of faculty members for lectures, seminars, and workshops.
- ii. Exchange of students for study programs and research internships.
- iii. Sharing of academic materials and resources.

Research and Publications: The departments can encourage collaboration in research and scholarly publications. Faculty members can engage in joint research projects, co-author articles, and present their findings at conferences. Collaborative research can contribute to the advancement of Arabic linguistics, literature, and cultural studies.

Resource Sharing: The departments can collaborate on resource sharing, such as libraries, multimedia materials, online resources, and language learning technologies. This can expand the available resources for students and faculty members, making it easier to access authentic Arabic language materials and tools for teaching and learning.

The aim of the MoU shall be to achieve a broad balance in the respective contributions and benefits of the collaborations, and this shall be subject to periodic review by both parties.

Validation period of this MoU

This MoU shall be valid for a period of three years from the execution of the same, unless the parties mutually agree in writing to extend the same.

This MoU can be terminated by either party upon written notice of not less than ninety (90) days.
